Almighty Father	Glorious Son	Holy Spirit
Rescues his servants from the jaws and teeth of death, the lips of that whirlpool, the grave ... In His power	Rescued us by taking upon himself the issue of death	Rescues from all discomfort, by his blessed impressions before*
Deliverance from death	Deliverance by death	Deliverance in death

Foundation of buildings – sustain and support, keeps from sinking	Framing together of buildings – comprehend and embrace, allow them not to swerve	Buttresses of buildings – knit and unite, keeps from cleaving

*—that what manner of death soever be ordained for us, it shall be an entrance into everlasting life. Unto the Holy Spirit belongs what kind of transmigration we shall have out of this world, whether prepared or sudden, whether violent or natural, whether in our perfect senses or shaken and disordered by sickness. The ways of our departing out of this life are in His hands; he will have a care of us in the hour of death, of what kind soever our passage be. God has all ways that lead out from death in his own keeping. The gates of the grave none can open but Himself, we shall only pass into them at his bidding; while on the the heavenward side he has set open the doors for all his people.
