

Promises of God are the Key to finding assurance of salvation. We are not saved through the promises we make to God but through the promises He makes to us! You can rest your eternal destiny confidently on the promise of John 3:16.